9. Any candidate who after announcement made under Ordinance 10 fails to part-with or is found to have in his/her possession or accessible to him/her, papers, books or notes, relating to the subject of examination of that paper or detected in giving or receiving assistance, or using or attempting to use any other unfair means in connection with the examination, shall be expelled by the superintendent of the Centre from the examination room.
  10. If a candidate is found having in his/her possession or accessible to him/her, papers, books or notes which might possibly be of assistance to him/her he/she shall.
    - (a) If it is found that his/her possession of such books, notes or papers was due to inadvertence and was not mala fide he shall be debarred from passing the examination for that year only, as a disciplinary measure without any implication of moral turpitude, and (b) in other cases of possession be disqualified.
  11. Any candidate detected in giving or receiving assistance or found guilty of copying from any paper book or notes, or allowing any other candidate to copy his/her answer-book, or using or attempting to use these or any other unfair means, shall be disqualified from passing any examination for a period not exceeding 3 years.
  12. Notwithstanding any other law for the time being in force and without prejudice to any remedy open to the University, under such Law:
    - (a) Any candidate found guilty of deliberate previous arrangements to cheat in the examination such as smuggling another answer-book, impersonation or misconduct of a serious nature and the person who impersonates as such candidate if he/she is one of the rolls of an affiliated college shall be disqualified for a period of not less than three and not more than five years or declared as not a fit and proper person to be admitted to any future examination of the University, according to the seriousness of the offence and the other circumstances of the case.
    - (b) If the impersonator is not on the rolls of an affiliated college, the Controller of Examinations shall report the matter to the police and shall send intimation of the same to the Vice-Chancellor.
  13. Provided that in case covered by clause (a) above a candidate or the impersonator, on the expiry of five years including the examination in connection with which he/she was declared to be not a fit and proper person to be admitted to any future examination may, as a special case, be exempted by the Syndicate from further operation of this Ordinance with the sanction of the Vice-Chancellor.
  14. (a) Any Candidate obtaining admission to the examination on the false representation made on his/her application from or using abusive or obscene language in the answer-book shall be disqualified from passing any examination that year and the next year.
  - (b) Any candidate forging another person's signatures on his/her application or his/her admission form shall be disqualified as in Ordinance 13.
  15. Any candidate found guilty of disclosing his/her identity or making peculiar marks in his/her answer book for that purpose shall:
    - (a) if he/she is successful in the examination, be disqualified from passing the examination that year: or
    - (b) If unsuccessful in the examination be disqualified for that year and the following year.
  16. Candidates guilty of communicating or attempting to communicate, with examiners with the object of influencing them in award of their marks, shall be deemed to have used, or attempted to use, unfair means within the meaning of Ordinance 13 and shall be punished accordingly. Communications of the nature addressed to the Controller will be treated as falling in the same category and the candidate concerned shall be punished as in Ordinance 13
Explanation:— An approach made by a relative, guardian or a friend of a candidate will, as a rule, be considered to be on behalf of the candidate who shall be punished as laid down in this Ordinance. The making of an appeal to the examiner through an answer-book by a candidate is prohibited. The answer paper in which such an appeal is made shall be liable to be cancelled.
  17. Any candidate who refuses to obey the Superintendent of an Examination in the examination Hall or changes his/her seat with another candidate, or changes his/her roll number card, creates disturbance of any kind during the examination, or otherwise misbehaves in or around any examination hall shall be liable to expulsion by the superintendent or the Controller or Inspector of a Centre or any officer duly authorised by the controller as well as to any of the following punishments according to the seriousness of the offence:
    1. Cancellation of the particular answer-book concerned.
    2. Disqualification for one year only.
    3. Disqualification up to three years.

The Superintendent of examination Hall shall report without delay each case in detail with evidence and explanation of the candidate concerned for final orders of the University.
  18. In case of an emergency the Vice-Chancellor is authorised to award suitable punishment, without reference to the Unfair Means Committee, to any candidate or to any student on the rolls of the affiliated Colleges, who creates disturbance of any kind during an examination or otherwise misbehaves in or around any examination hall.
  19. Any candidate found in possession of fire-arms or anything capable of being used as a weapon of offence in or around any examination hall, shall be, liable to expulsion by the Officers as mentioned in Ordinance 9 above and to disqualification ranging between two and three years.
  20. In the case of the alleged use of unfair means in connection with examinations, if in the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor facts have been brought to light within 30 days of the receipt of the decision by the candidate which had been before the committee, might have induced them to come to a decision other than the one arrived at than Vice-Chancellor may order that such facts be reduced to writing and placed before the Committee. The Committee shall then reconsider the case. A unanimous decision of the Committee shall be final. But in the event of a difference of opinion the case shall be referred to the Vice-Chancellor, who may either finally decide the case himself or refer it to the Syndicate for final decision as he thinks fit.
